The Passing of an Icon

Pillsbury Family Mourns Doughboy's Passing

Courtesy of Patricia H.

For nearly a century the Pillsbury family has helped Americans prepare Thanksgiving dinner. But this Thanksgiving, one of the Pillsbury family will be missing.

The Pillsbury Doughboy died yesterday of a yeast infection and trauma complications from repeated pokes in the belly. He was 51.

Doughboy was buried in a lightly greased coffin. Dozens of celebrities turned out to pay their respects, including Mrs. Butterworth, Hungry Jack, the California Raisins, Betty Crocker, the Hostess Twinkies, and Captain Crunch. The grave site was piled high with flours.

Aunt Jemima delivered the eulogy and lovingly described Doughboy as a man who never knew how much he was kneaded. Doughboy rose quickly in show business, but his later life was filled with turnovers. He was considered a very smart cookie, but wasted much of his dough on half baked schemes. Despite being a little flaky at times, he still was a crusty old man and was considered a positive role model for millions.

Doughboy is survived by his wife Play dough, three children: John Dough, Jane Dough and Dosey Dough, plus they had one in the oven. He is also survived by his father, Pop Tart.

The funeral was held at 3:50 for about 20 minutes.

*Back In Time at Whispering Pines
Notes From November 1977*

Temperatures in the low 60's during the day. Nights definitely getting cooler.

We officially got water and electric hooked up to the new trailer on the 12th. Spent a lot of time getting the inside ready to move into.

Worked on repairs to the gate again.

Ended up re-locating the gate so that only the club area was enclosed. Maybe we could control any future damages if it was closer to where we spent all our time. We also had a phone installed there with a bell attached to the outside of the bath house.

All exposed water lines and faucets were wrapped to protect them from freezing. We also did this for a number of lot owners.

Moved into the big trailer a few days before Thanksgiving. After living in the tiny camping trailer for the past 16 months, it feels like a Palace!
